The Designing of Zos Ntuj Hmoov Ntuj and Vaj Loog Zim Txwv Temple Kickoff Meeting

In 2019, Zos Hmoov Ntuj Development Team submitted the vision of Zos Hmoov Ntuj to the Butte County Planning Department. The Planning Department approved the vision statement and zoning compliance as submitted. On February 21st, 2020, the Development Team met in Chico, California for a kickoff meeting to discuss the design of the Master Development Plan for Zos Ntuj Hmoov Ntuj and Vaj Loog Zim Txwv Temple.

The goals of this meeting are to discuss:

1. The design of the Vaj Loog Zim Txwv Temple.
2. The design of the Yeej Loog Qoov Sua Administration.
3. The design of the outdoor museum, park, and recreational areas.
4. The design of the school and auditorium.
5. The design of the residential areas.
6. The design of the commercial areas.
7. The design of the roads in Zos Hmoov Ntuj.
8. The design of the septic system.
9. The design of the landscaping, energy saving, and environmental conservation of Zos Hmoov Ntuj according to the teachings of Leej Niam (Our Mother).

The Process and Approach image below illustrates the method to developing a community according to city and county rules and regulations. The Development Team will follow the process and approach as outlined when designing the Zos Hmoov Ntuj community to make certain the community remains in compliance with government rules and regulations, ensure the safety of the people who live within the community, and for public support.

Members of the design and development team at the Kickoff Meeting included the Civil Engineer, Architect, Landscape/Architectural Designers, Project Manager, and three representatives from Kev Ntseeg Leej Niam. Our team is very passionate about this project. This project, when completed, may attract people around the world to visit the Temple and Community and to learn the teachings of Leej Niam. As tourists visit the Community, they will bring economic opportunities to the City of Oroville and Butte County; allowing our community, in a small way, to give back to the city and county that gave us a home.
